KXG GIN COCKTAILS

24

Sin and Tonic

The ultimate gin and tonic that may slip you to sin, when you wonder why the Drizzle of the Clitoria Ternatea, made the frustrated blue hue, blush with pink when joined in gin

Pear of Kings

Street royalty was only obtained when Knitted by the secret trials that once happened in the illegal gambling dens of Kings Cross

Pepperation Makes Perfect

For the juniper freak, Savory and sweet, strong and not weak, good times and lots of heat!

Blanconi

This new interpretation of the traditional negroni, pushes the conservative boundaries, the same way KX has done so to so many people, present and past

Dandelion Martini

Like the modernist design of the El Alamein Memorial Fountain, that sits across the road from the distillery, This martini is modernistic in its style, is refreshing, yet retains a classic element

Im(peach)ment

Some would say, Kings Cross was quite the scary place, that had a history of organized crime and corruption which finally led to a Royal Commission in the mid 1990s. Now this once impeached area is blossoming like a peach tree

KXG SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

Tally Me' Banana

Based on the 1950s Harry Belafonte classic hit. A bodacious libation to have at the end of a hard working day on the banana trade ships. Whilst this was an expression of its time in the Americas, here in Kings Cross it was a time when Bohemians cut ties with the conservative ways of the time to pursue intellectual freedom and expression

Flash and Pash

Kings Cross had a whole lotta this going on, so enjoy this new kind of pash and flash it on insta

Pandan-ic Milk Punch

A clarified spring milk punch with Australian Brandy, 2 sips, a gulp and get randy

Hey Pachuco!

The spice of South America, which brings what it already has which is art, food and culture. Flights are cancelled for a while but your drink order isn't

Red Right Hand

A refence from a poem called Paradise Lost, meaning divine vengeance. Suited to the life of the Cross that was once lived

Piscotheque!

1970s in KX was all about the fun o Saturday night fever and Discotheques. Boogie on down to flavour town
